Antiparos

The Blue Lagoon

Sun-kissed Island

An island that is still off the radar! The sea all around the island is stunning, with turquoise and emerald hues. On the southern side, you'll find the most impressive sight of the island, stunning caves with a magical glow. You also can't miss a refreshing dive into the turquoise waters of the Blue Lagoon. Another stop on our trip has to be the uninhabited island of Despotiko. An archaeological site very close to Antiparos, which is home to the Sanctuary of Apollo and ancient ruins.
